Thought For The Week From John White

I read weekly many inserts from various sources in the bulletin, all that feed the feeling of well-being.

Try this quote from Mahatma Gandhi; "You Christians look after a document containing enough dynamite to blow civilisation to pieces, turn the world upside down and bring peace to a battle-worn planet. BUT you [Christians] treat it as though it is nothing more than a piece of literature". Do YOU think he's right? Numbers 23 vs.19.

*If we had a fraction of the faith in you that you have in us
Then this world would be transformed, Lord.*

*If we showed a fraction of the love that you show to us
Then this world would be transformed, Lord*

*If we possessed a fraction of the patience that you display with us
Then this world would be transformed, Lord.*

*If we shared just a portion of the blessings that we have received from you
Then this world would be transformed, Lord.*

*If we showed as much trust in others as you have shown in us
Then this world would be transformed, Lord.*

*If we claimed just a fraction of the power you promised to your Church
Then this world would be transformed, Lord.*

*Transform us first, Lord, that we might transform this world
Through your love and your power.*

Virtual Prayer Room

On Tuesday 23rd Elspeth and Jan asked for prayers as they followed up the prayer cards that morning. On the same day Doreen asked "Please could you pray for Charlene who has an infection and is receiving antibiotics intravenously." Later that day Jan and Elspeth reported "Thank you for your prayers, we had chats with several people who were grateful and we left cards with them. No requests for prayer although most were struggling."

To join the ever growing WhatsApp Virtual Prayer Room text Jerry on 07733837687. You will need a smart phone.

Holiday Club 2019

We had a really positive meeting on Monday with lots of brilliant ideas. This year's event will start on the 12th August.

Mayday fun afternoon

Fun at the recreation ground, Recreation Road, Stalham from 2.00pm to 5.00pm. We have a number of stalls some live music and refreshments. The Poppy centre (well worth a look) and the youth club will be open. The Fancy dress will start at 3.00pm and the mile walk/run at 3.30pm. Please give all collected sponsorship money to Stewart in an envelope labelled "Marathon sponsorship money" so that we can total the amount raised. You don't need to put your name on the envelope as sponsorship is for the whole team – and every £1 is helpful. If you don't see Stewart pop the envelope in the offering. To give us a few weeks to collect the donations the final total will be announced at the end of May. Well done to all taking part in the One Mile Marathon and thanks to all our sponsors including Trett Phillips who kindly sponsored the event with £100.

Reflections from the Norwich Winter Shelter Project

Maggie Harpur writes. Churches in the city worked in partnership with Norwich City Council to provide accommodation for rough sleepers from November through to the end of March. Norwich Central Baptist Church (NCBC) provided a venue for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights. Russell Street Community Centre, run by St Thomas' church hosted guests on Friday and Saturday nights.

This is the first time a shelter like this has been provided in a co-ordinated way. It has been of great benefit to the 58 people who would otherwise have been sleeping on the streets. It has enabled some of them to engage with other services available and organisers believe that lives have been saved through the project. Crucial to the project was the army of 55 volunteers who took on various roles – from welcoming guests as they arrived, providing overnight supervision, and clearing up in the morning. Gill Duffy, from Norwich Central Baptist Church (NCBC) said, "I am so grateful to the volunteers who supported the shelter. An unexpected bonus was seeing friendships between the volunteers develop. For some it was the first time they had worked with this client group and it was wonderful seeing them grow in confidence and understanding about the issues homeless people face." One of the most exciting elements of the project was the longer-term outcomes for rough sleepers. Of the 58 individuals who used the shelter over the winter months, 29 have since moved on to more settled accommodation.

Several of the guests remarked on the warm and friendly atmosphere at the shelter. For many it was more than a bed for the night; it was a place to have a chat, receive some guidance and advice and some compassionate human contact that is often missing on the streets. Some guests accessed health care as a result of using the shelter and it served as a starting point for getting their lives back on track. Gill said, "We are fortunate in Norwich that there are excellent services for homeless people and it is really positive that the Winter Night Shelter was part of that. There were challenges at times and we are very tired! Once we have a moment to recover, we will review the project and reflect on how it could be changed and improved next year. It was definitely a worthwhile thing to do."

1Kings 17-18

Quotes of the Week

"Because salvation is by grace through faith, I believe that among the countless number of people standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands (see Revelation 7:9), I shall see the prostitute from the Kit-Kat Ranch in Carson City, Nevada, who tearfully told me that she could find no other employment to support her two-year-old son. I shall see the woman who had an abortion and is haunted by guilt and remorse but did the best she could faced with gruelling alternatives; the businessman besieged with debt who sold his integrity in a series of desperate transactions; the insecure clergyman addicted to being liked, who never challenged his people from the pulpit and longed for unconditional love; the sexually abused teen molested by his father and now selling his body on the street, who, as he falls asleep each night after his last 'trick', whispers the name of the unknown God he learned about in Sunday school. 'But how?' we ask. Then the voice says, 'They have washed their robes and have made them white in the blood of the Lamb.' There they are. There we are - the multitude who so wanted to be faithful, who at times got defeated, soiled by life, and bested by trials, wearing the bloodied garments of life's tribulations, but through it all clung to faith. My friends, if this is not good news to you, you have never understood the gospel of grace."
