We can sense exciting times ahead of us for our fellowship and our region. We are in the end times and the Holy Spirit is tangible, doing new things and revealing himself to his people afresh. Please pray for us as we reach out into the community more and more through Messy Church, Little Steps, Open the Book (OtB), Disabled Christian Fellowship (DCF), Alpha, Foodbank, Table Tennis, The Link coffee shop and Scrapbooking and Cardmaking. Please pray for more helpers to come forward. We are also preparing for regular prayer walks in the surrounding area. DCF have organised an afternoon event with Christian Singer/Songwriter Marilyn Baker on 23rd November. Please pray that this event will touch lots of people's lives. Please pray for a mighty Harvest as we prepare to celebrate our Harvest Festival on 17th September with our annual donations for Foodbank. Please also pray for our Link to Hope shoebox appeal in November. This year our donations will go to families and the elderly in Romania, Bulgaria, Ukraine and Moldova. A number of people have had to drop out of refreshments duties for various reasons so please would you let me know if you would be able to do one/or more. It would be really good if we have more people as this means that you would only have to teas etc once every four months. Thank you in advance. Maggie Harpur 01692 583121.

Quotes of the Week

“If you don't feel strong desires for the manifestation of the glory of God, it is not because you have drunk deeply and are satisfied. It is because you have nibbled so long at the table of the world. Your soul is stuffed with small things, and there is no room for the great.”

John Piper, is an American Calvinist Baptist pastor born 1946 quote from “A Hunger For God.”

“It seems to me we can never give up longing and wishing while we are still alive. There are certain things we feel to be beautiful and good, and we must hunger for them.”

George Eliot 1819 - 1890 Mary Anne Evans, known by her pen name George Eliot, was an English novelist, poet, journalist, translator and one of the leading writers of the Victorian era.

Thought for the week I don't do the 'Lord's Prayer'

It's so easy to rattle off the 'Lord's Prayer' (Matthew 6:9–13) isn't it? To stream through it with absolutely no thought as to what you are saying. Surely, Jesus could not have meant it to be a ritual form of words to be trotted out at every possible opportunity? Indeed. Jesus would not have meant it to be used in this way. He had been asked to teach the disciples to pray, as His prayers were a breadth of fresh air to them, used as they were to the Jewish ritualistic repetition of liturgy. And what has His teaching of prayer 'bullet points' become but a ritualistic repetition of liturgy...
